

Monthly Report

FUND DESCRIPTION

The objective of Patrimonium, a subfund of MerclIn II SICAV, is to increase the value of your investment over the medium- to long-term. Under normal market conditions, the fund primarily invests in a diversified portfolio of equities and bonds from all countries worldwide, including from emerging market countries.

The fund may invest directly in equities or bonds, or indirectly by investing in units of other investment funds or in certificates of deposit. In order to take advantage or hedge against market fluctuations, or for effective portfolio management, the sub-fund may use derivatives.

The Fund Manager will select the various investment classes, sectors and countries in a flexible manner, on the basis of macroeconomic and financial criteria. This fund is suitable for investors who understand the risks of the fund and who wish to invest for a minimum investment horizon of 3 to 5 years.

MANAGER'S COMMENT

Synlab is the leading group in the European clinical laboratory services market, which offers a wide range of analytical diagnostics testing and screening services. The group employs 22,000 employees and enjoys a pan-European network that covers 38 countries. This industry shows favourable underlying trends, has high barriers to entry and features predictable cash flows.

The company has been impacted by the current pandemic but less so than other industries. While patients have deferred medical tests during the lockdown, the company expects a V-shaped recovery when business returns to normal. Moreover, Synlab can perform PCR and serology tests for COVID-19 across its network, which represents an opportunity.

At the beginning of May, the company announced its plans to extend the maturity profile and revealed a new bond with maturity in 2025 to refinance a bond with maturity in 2022. This refinancing is favourable for the credit and its liquidity profile. The fund had an exposure to the 2022 bond that has been repaid, and it took the opportunity to buy the new bond issued at a more attractive yield.

The subfund's risk level reflects the following factor(s):

- The risk level does not reflect the potential impact of unusual market conditions or unforeseen events that may increase risk or trigger other risks such as:
- Counterparty risk: the subfund can lose money as a result of the failure of a market player with which it does business.
  - Credit risk: risk associated with bonds becoming worthless when the issuer of the bond is not able to repay its debt on maturity.
  - Liquidity risk: some financial securities may be impossible to sell quickly at a given time or may have to be sold at a discount.
  - Management risk: under abnormal market conditions, the usual management techniques may be ineffective or unfavourable.
  - Risk of derivatives: some derivatives may increase the volatility of the subfund or expose the subfund to losses that are higher than the price of the derivatives.
  - Operating risk: in any market, and especially in the emerging markets, the subfund may lose some or all of its money if there is a failure in the custody of assets or in case of fraud, corruption, political actions or any other adverse event.
